Is accepting applications for the full-time, permanent position of

“Elementary School Teacher”

Teach with Purpose. Inspire with Culture. Support a Community's Future.

Lloyd S. King Elementary School (LSK), part of the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation (MCFN), is seeking a passionate, student-centered Elementary Teacher who is committed to fostering a safe, inclusive, and culturally grounded learning environment. This is an incredible opportunity for an educator who believes in the power of culturally responsive teaching and is eager to support the growth, identity development, and success of Indigenous learners.

At LSK, you will play a vital role in upholding our mission, vision, and values as you guide students academically, emotionally, and socially. We are looking for someone who brings heart, dedication, and a genuine desire to uplift our community through education.

Key Responsibilities

As an LSK Teacher, you will:

- Create a welcoming, respectful classroom that prioritizes student well-being, belonging, confidence, and identity.
- Deliver engaging, inclusive, and culturally relevant instruction aligned with the Ontario Curriculum.
- Integrate Anishinaabe culture, language, traditions, and teachings into daily learning.
- Use differentiated and Universal Design for Learning strategies to meet diverse student needs.
- Build strong relationships with students, families, colleagues, and community partners.
- Maintain accurate records, assessments, and documentation in accordance with school and Ministry requirements.
- Participate in school improvement planning, professional development, and community events.
- Support student behavior using restorative practices and the Seven Grandfather Teachings.
- Ensure a safe, organized, and supportive classroom environment.

What You Bring

- Bachelor of Education and membership in good standing with the Ontario College of Teachers.
- Qualifications in Primary, Junior, or Intermediate divisions.
- A genuine passion for working in Indigenous education and uplifting First Nation learners.
- Strong understanding of child development and inclusive teaching practices.
- Ability to integrate First Nation culture, language, and ways of knowing into teaching.
- Excellent communication, relationship-building, and classroom management skills.
- Commitment to continuous professional growth and community collaboration.
